

Integral Transformative Practice International (ITPI) Fundraising Consultant Position

Seeking Contract or Part-time Fundraising Consultant

ITP International (ITPI), an established educational 501(c)3 non profit organization, is seeking a professional fundraising consultant or consulting team experienced in fundraising development, strategic marketing and event design.

Our organizational goal is to increase the ROI for our fundraising efforts, including our main annual fundraiser, Golf in the Kingdom, by engaging a dynamic, creative and experienced fundraiser to generate a strategic annual fundraising plan, build our brand, and extend our outreach. This role will include project oversight with support from the ITP International team.

Required experience

- Fundraising: 5+ years experience
- Current corporate donor and media relationships and broad networks
- Organizational skills and ability to use technology to achieve desired results

Key Consultant Roles and Goals

- Strategic fundraising planning and oversight of implementation
- Donor engagement
- Grant writing
- Legacy and endowment program planning
- Fundraising event oversight

Roles Related to Annual Fundraiser

- Project planning and oversight
- Brand building and marketing
- Corporate and business fundraising
- Determine annual program and fundraising goals

About ITP International

Integral Transformational Practice International (ITPI) is an educational nonprofit, formed in 2005, that stewards the evolution of Integral Transformative Practice[®] (ITP). Our vision is to awaken the world to its fullest potential. The ITP program was co-founded by George Leonard and Michael Murphy in 1993. ITP draws on the ancient wisdom of yoga and Aikido, as well as modern science and psychology to offer a balanced, integral approach to personal transformation. ITPI offers a wide range of programs and coaching and consulting services to individuals, groups and organizations. For more information about ITPI, please visit our website: www.itp-international.org.

Inquiries and resumes to be sent to: Robert@itp-international.org